School bands hit all the right notes at village fair

TWO school bands proved a real hit at a village event.

The Hayes School Jazz Band and the Keston CofE Primary School Band entertained crowds at the 2009 Hayes Fair, which took place last Saturday at Baston School, in Baston Road, Hayes.

The Hayes band features 12 of the most talented students from Hayes School, aged 13-18. Each year a student in the sixth form leads the band and this year it is the turn of keys player Kieran Hughes, 18, who is looking forward to going to Cambridge next year to study music.

The band's repertoire includes a wide range of jazz standards and visitors to the fair were treated to renditions of Tequila, Canteloupe Island and Birdland. The fair is said to be a favourite annual gig for the band, which has toured Croatia, Italy, Spain and Poland.

The event featured more than 70 stalls, as well as a may queen procession plus sideshows, a raffle and traditional games.

If you could lend a hand to help with the organisation of next year's fair, call Peter Harrold on 020 8462 1736. The annual event enables Hayes Village Association to continue supporting deserving charities.
